5,055 bottles production

Fukano Whisky 2018 Edition is a limited edition of 5,055 bottles. It is made up of 8 used European oak casks and 3 refill sherry casks.

This vatting of casks was put together to showcase how diverse and creamy the Fukano Whisky can be. It is the complement to the 2017, 12yr single cask and Sherry Cask Fukano. All are very different by design and we are only free to accomplish this because of how well the rice distillate takes to oak.

The 2017 made the list of Top 20 Whiskies of the Year by Whisky Advocate and we feel the 2018 edition is a solid second in the line with equally delightful qualities deserving of this prestigious rating.

Founded in 1823, Fukano Distillery is located in Hitoyoshi City, of the Kumamoto Prefecture of Japan on the island of Kyushu. Hitoyoshi is surrounded by mountains and is known for its pure water and nature.

They use a combination of malted and un-malted rice to make their whisky in a pot still. These releases are very limited in nature and only a few casks are bottled each year.

Tasting notes: Massive, creamy, creme brûlée and butterscotch. The weight of the whisky covers the palate with a silky texture that is unique onto its own. The finish is vanilla with umami and lasts for a long, long time.
